- ② Undated memo to Pierre Salinger, Presidential Press Secretary. From: Richard Helms.

11111468

FYI, CIA has an operational interest in Dr. Aguero, who is considered one of the outstanding personalities among Cuban exiles. He is a forceful & effective speaker - - - .

- ③ Undated, rough draft memo prepared by Vidal. Writer met with G. Aguero on 15 April 1960 at the request of David Phillips, Chief of the Propaganda Section [JMARC] project. Phillips desirous of establishing contact with Aguero immediately because of his possible value to [JMARC] in the propaganda field.

Prior to meeting, Vidal checked Aguero's branch file for derogatory reports (see) & summarized FBI # 105-86025 alleging Aguero is not a bona-fide refugee but in fact a Castro agent. Additionally, William Pawley submitted a memo of telephone conversation on 7 Apr. 1960 between William Pawley of Miami & L.D. Mallory of ARA (sic) indicates Pawley feels Aguero may be a counteresp. for Castro.

Dispatch to Task Force W. from COS/JMWAVE

Subject: Operational [Gyrose / Amstrut]

Info. given to [Amstrut] by Aguero 11111469

Aguero says about 1 Oct he met with Guerre Salinger & later in meeting Pres. Kennedy entered room & talked to them & told Aguero
he should be confident that U.S. was doing something on the Cuban matter. Also said he had a meeting with Edwin Martin of the State Dept. Martin was mainly interested in learning what would happen in Cuba
if Castro were killed. Aguero reported to [Amstrut] he had received word from inside
that an attempt was made on Castro's life
and as a result, 70 persons were arrested.
